

MEET THE PEOPLE SERVING YOU

Jennifer Woodward, DO

Jennifer Woodward is a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine who earned her B.S. in Biology from the University of Dayton, and her medical degree from the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine - Georgia Campus. She completed her residency in family medicine at the West Virginia School of Osteopathic Medicine/Cabell Huntington Hospital at Marshall University. She is board certified and a member of the American Osteopathic Association, American Academy of Family Physicians and American College of Osteopathic Family Physician. Her areas of interest include adult and pediatric medicine, women's health, global medicine and osteopathic manipulation. Dr. Woodward's volunteer service includes serving the Christian Medical and Dental Association's Global Outreach Program, as well as participating in medical missions to South Africa with her church. She began her career by serving four years active duty in the Air Force as a Family Physician, treating active-duty members of all services, their dependents and retirees. In the years prior to joining CareHere, Dr. Woodward worked as a Family Physician with The Christ Hospital seeing all ages.

Jennifer enjoys traveling and spending time with her pets, including her new puppy, Rudy.

Elizabeth Whitfield, FNP

Elizabeth Whitfield is a Family Nurse Practitioner who returned to her hometown of Cincinnati after living for 11 years in Baltimore, Maryland, and living for two years before that as a Peace Corps Volunteer in Haiti, where her true passion for healthcare began. In Baltimore, she attended Johns Hopkins University and earned her Master of Science in Nursing and Public Health. Together, with a Bachelor of Social Work from the University of Tennessee, these degrees combine to help achieve her goal of focusing on the whole individual, preventing illness, maintaining optimal health and connecting to valuable community resources. Before working for CareHere, Elizabeth worked for the Baltimore City Health Department in their school-based health centers and then provided primary and acute care at a retail health clinic in Baltimore. Recently, she has been providing primary and preventive healthcare to Medicaid recipients in their homes throughout Ohio and Michigan.

Elizabeth enjoys spending time with her family, which includes her husband, two sons, and their dog, MacGyver. She stays busy keeping up with school schedules, soccer and swim practices, piano, Cub Scouts and still tries to find time for her favorite hobbies of running and reading.

Shellie Hodges, RN

Shellie Hodges is a Registered Nurse from West Carrollton, Ohio. She completed her education at Fortis College where she received her associate degree. Shellie began her career in corrections with the State of Ohio. Before joining CareHere, she worked as a registered nurse with Aya Healthcare and Kettering Health.

In her spare time, Shellie enjoys spending time with family and friends, going to the gym and watching football.
