NOTE: Only eligible dependents may be enrolled in your benefit plan. (Refer to your Plan's Benefit Book or Personnel office if unsure of guidelines). Dependent proof of eligibility may be required; such as birth certificate, custody, or guardianship papers (for children eligibility) and/or first page of your last filed 1040 tax return (for spouse eligibility) with the financial information and all but the last 4-digits of the SSN blacked out. Failure to provide proof of eligibility upon request, or failure to enroll a spouse into their own employer's sponsored coverage, if eligible, will result in the recovery of all benefits paid on behalf of that spouse/dependent by your Plan.

Insurance Fraud is a serious criminal offense and is punishable to the fullest extent of the law. Knowingly enrolling an ineligible dependent in your employer's benefit plan will result in the cancellation of coverage and may subject you to disciplinary action, including termination of employment.
